

Professional Development Workshop

Mining Identity, Narrative and Place in Contemporary Art Practice

Ariel René Jackson
Art Galleries at Black Studies' Idea Lab
Women & Their Work

Saturday, February 19th, 2022
1-3pm on Zoom

Join us for an artist talk with Ariel René Jackson about their work and practice with an inside-the-gallery view of Jackson's exhibitions A Welcoming Place at Women & Their Work and The way back home at Art Galleries at Black Studies' Idea Lab. Mine the big ideas of memory, identity and place through art making investigations with strategies for integrating this thematic and material-driven approach into your art curriculum. This hands-on and standards-based workshop is co-presented by Art Galleries at Black Studies and Women & Their Work educators for high school art teachers and artists.
